The Second Sunday in Lent

At St. James by-the-Sea we welcome and care for all people at every stage of their spiritual journey, and we seek to create opportunities for faith in God to be discovered, renewed and put into action.

Welcome! If you are worshipping with us for the first time today, we are honored by your presence. If you would like to know more about St. James, or want us to know more about you, we invite you to fill out a pew card. You may drop the completed card into the collection plate, or hand it to an usher or member of the clergy. We hope you sense God’s presence as you worship with us today, and that we will have an opportunity to greet you after the service. If you are traveling, we wish you Godspeed as you continue on your way.

Hearing assistance devices are available from the ushers.
Nursery care for infants and young children is available upstairs.

Hymn The God of Abraham praise Hymn No. 401

The Penitential Rite
If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us; but if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:8, 9

Dearly beloved, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father, to set forth his praise, to hear his holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things that are necessary for our life and our salvation. And so that we may prepare ourselves in heart and mind to worship him, let us kneel in silence, and with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Please kneel as you are able. Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

Opening Versicle

Lord, open our lips.
And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Invitatory
Venite, exultemus Domino

1. Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

2. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4. In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.

5. The Psalm 121  Sung by the choir
I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills; *
from whence cometh my help?
My help cometh even from the LORD, *
who hath made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; *
and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel * shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The LORD himself is thy keeper; *
the LORD is thy defence upon thy right hand;
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day, *
neither the moon by night.
The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil; *
yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.
The LORD shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in,*
from this time forth for evermore.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The First Lesson

Genesis 12:1-4a

The Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Silence will be kept. Please stand as you are able.

Canticle  The Song of Zachariah

Hymn No. 444

Please be seated.

The Second Lesson

Romans 4:1-5, 13-17

What then are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.” Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due. But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness.

For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”) —in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Silence will be kept. Please stand as you are able.
The Third Lesson

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?” Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

“Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Silence will be kept.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lesser Litany
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Suffrages
Show us your mercy, O Lord;
And grant us your salvation.
Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
Let your people sing with joy.
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
For only in you can we live in safety.
Lord, keep this nation under your care;
And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
Let your way be known upon earth;
Your saving health among all nations.
Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Create in us clean hearts, O God;
And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.
The Collect of the Day
O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect for Grace
Lord God, almighty and everlasting Father, you have brought us in safety to this new day: Preserve us with your mighty power, that we may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all we do, direct us to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Mission
O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you; bring the nations into your fold; pour out your Spirit upon all flesh; and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Sermon

The Rev’d Dr. Mark Hargreaves

Musical Offering

Also hat Gott die Welt geliebt, BWV 68

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Sung in German.

I. Chorus
God so loved the world, that He gave us His Son.
Whoever gives himself to Him in faith shall afterwards live with Him eternally.
Whoever believes that Jesus was born for him,
will never be lost,
and no sorrow will trouble him who loves God and also His Jesus.

II. Aria
My faithful heart,
delight, sing, play,
your Jesus is here!
Away with sorrow, away with lamenting,
I will only say to you:
my Jesus is near.

III. Recitative
Anthony Whitson-Martini, baritone
I am not presumptuous like Peter, what comforts me and makes me joyous,
is that my Jesus has not forgotten me.
He did not come only to judge the world,
no, no, He wished to mediate for sin and guilt
as Intercessor between God and man.

IV. Aria
Anthony Whitson-Martini, baritone
You have been born for my well-being,
I believe this, I am encouraged by it, since You have done enough for me.
The orb of the earth may crack open,
Satan may speak against me,
yet I pray to You, my Savior.

V. Chorus
Whoever believes in Him will not be judged;
but whoever does not believe is already judged;
for he does not believe in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

Musical Note:
Johann Sebastian Bach’s Cantata No. 68, Also hat Gott die Welt geliebt, was written and first performed at the Thomaskirche in Leipzig on May 21, 1725. The text is based on texts from the bible, set to poetry by Christiana Mariana von Ziegler, a German writer and poet.

Bach composed new cantatas, multimovement works for choir, soloists, and accompaniment, for nearly every week of the church year. The purpose of these works is to enhance the gospel of the day and offer a musical meditation on the sermon.
Please stand as you are able.

The Officiant offers prayers, concluding with

The General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.
We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

The Grace

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hymn

Lift high the cross

Hymn No. 473

Closing Versicle

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Voluntary

Sonata No. 4 a quattro in d minor: iii. & iv. Allegro

For Today — March 8, 2020

Healing & Pastoral Prayers

Healing Prayers at Communion will be on hiatus this week during the 10am service, while Morning Prayer is celebrated. They will be offered as per usual at the 7:30am service.

Children's Ministries Education Programs:

Children ages 3 to 10 are invited to join us for Sunday School, exploring and wondering through Godly Play as early as 9:30am, in the children’s Chapel above the Parish Hall.

The nursery will be available from 8:45am to 11:45am as well for all children ages 0-2.

Youth Groups: SPARK and IGNITE a passion for Christ

This year we are having two Youth Ministry Groups, SPARK (5th-7th gr) and IGNITE (8th-12th gr). Weekly meetings currently occur in the Children's Library (Spark) and the Youth Room (Ignite) upstairs at 10am the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays of the month and 9am the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month. Please contact Katelyn Webster at Katelyn@sjbtes.org to learn more.

Adult Forums—8:45am in the Parish Hall

Our “Journey Through the Bible” continues with “Reading Other People’s Mail” - The Life and Letters of St. Paul, March 1st-22nd

It’s a federal offense to open and read other people’s mail. But that’s what we’re doing when we read the letters of St. Paul in the Christian Scriptures! David Moseley, Ph.D. will present a new series of Sunday Morning Forums on the Life and Letters of St. Paul. Author of more than a quarter of the New Testament, loved and hated in equal measure by liberals and conservatives alike. Classes will be multi-media with maps, photos, diagrams and movie clips. Detailed handouts will be provided.

Lenten Shoe Tree Celebration - March 8 & 15

Be part of the eighth annual St. James Shoe Tree fundraiser at Sunday coffee hour, March 8 & 15. Your $25 donation buys a pair of new shoes for needy men, women and children who have pre-registered for assistance. New shoes will be distributed at the Maundy Thursday Footwashing, April 9, at the Episcopal Church Center in Ocean Beach, as well as St. Mark’s, City Heights. Last year, generous St. James’ parishioners...plus a wonderful grant from the our White Elephant Sale...funded a remarkable total of 224 pairs of new shoes for our fellow San Diegans in need. Please bring cash or make checks out to St. James with “Shoe Tree” on the memo line. Funding multiple pairs of shoes is vigorously encouraged!

Make A Lunch Bag for the Homeless

Please take a moment to make a lunch or two for those you may pass along your way. This important ministry needs not only your participation, but also your support. Please consider making a monetary donation, in order to allow St. James to continue this important work, serving our brothers and sisters in need.

Choir to Offer Bach Cantata at Morning Prayer This Sunday—March 8th

Next Sunday, for the Second Sunday in Lent, during the 10am service we will take a musical journey exploring the themes of John 3:16, “for God so loved the world,” also known as Cantata 68, by Johann Sebastian Bach. Because in the Lutheran tradition the Cantata was always connected to the preaching of the sermon, we will offer a Morning Prayer service. The service, about 40 minutes long, will conclude with the sermon followed by the cantata, which lasts about 13 minutes.
New Exhibit at the St. James Gallery—
“Finding Venetian Angels” by Cherry Sweg

Exhibition: Feb. 28 - April 12

The next major exhibition at the St. James GALLERY by-the-Sea will be a brand new collection of artwork painted by one of our very own—Cherry Sweg, whose paintings were inspired by a trip to Venice, Italy last Fall. You won’t want to miss it!

OH! Festival returns to St. James—March 7 & 8

Yesterday and today, we have been participating in the city-wide architectural tour called the “OH! Festival.” To learn more about the festival, go to: sdarchitecture.org/program/openhouse. Thank you.

Organ Campaign Update

Since we launched the campaign for a new pipe organ a few weeks ago, over 900 people have logged onto the organ website to learn about the project. Last week we passed $2,746,000 toward our goal. As we now enter the season of Lent, please prayerfully consider how you might be called to contribute. Everyone will receive a mailing with an invitation to make a pledge over one, two, or three years. To learn more about the campaign, visit www.StJamesOrgan.com.

COMING UP IN THE NEXT WEEK

Lenten Soup Supper Series Delves into Re-Discovering Yourself: The Ancient Enneagram Wednesdays, March 4 - 25, 6:00 pm, Parish Hall

The Lenten Soup Supper Series will be sharing a meal, studying a book and engaging in rich discussion. Mother Rebecca offers this description of the series. “As we learn about the ancient enneagram, we will study the book, The Sacred Enneagram: Finding Your Unique Path to Spiritual Growth by Christopher Heuertz. This book and the enneagram itself will lead us into the discovery of our true selves—sometimes called “Nine Ways to Return to Your True Self.” The book is available online and a limited number at the church for $12.00. Please sign up at Coffee Hour or in the church office.

Newcomer’s Brunch: Sunday, Mar 15, 11:30 am Parish Hall

Calling All Newcomers and New Members of St. James! You are cordially invited to attend our annual Newcomer’s Brunch! If you are interested in becoming a member, whether you are brand new, not so new, or even newly returned, we invite you to be a part of our New Member Welcome. We will have a “Liturgy of Welcome” during the service, and then a delicious brunch following the 10:00 am service that day! Please RSVP to Mo. Rebecca, rebecca@sjbts.org, use the sign-up sheet after services, or call the church office: 858-459-3421

Choral Evensong: Sunday, March 15, 5:00 pm

We welcome guest clinician and conductor, Dr. Christopher Gravis, Canon for Music at St. John’s Cathedral, Los Angeles, to lead choral evensong this month.

The combined choirs of St. James and All Souls’ Parish will sing Preces and Responses by Richard Shephard, Herbert Howells’ Evening Canticles, Collegium Regale, and Evening Hymn by Balifour Gardiner. All Choral Evensong services will be held in St. James church, and everybody is invited to a reception after the service.

COMING UP IN THE NEXT MONTH

LUNCH BUNCH presents “Free Cataract Surgery & Eye Care in India” with Dr. Leon Ellwein, March 18th, 12:30 pm in the Parish Hall

Drawing upon his three decades of working with the world-renowned Aravind Eye Hospital System in Madurai, India, parishioner Dr. Leon Ellwein will present an overview of his fruitful time while working in India. Dr. Ellwein recently retired as Associate Director for Applications of Vision Research at the National Institutes of Health, where he was instrumental in initiating vision impairment and eyes-care surveys in Brazil, Chile, China, India, Malaysia, Nepal, Niger, and South Africa. Lunch is provided by Girard Gourmet for $9. RSVP at Coffee Hour on Sunday or call the office.

Taizé Ecumenical Prayer Service with Brother Emile from Taizé, France—March 19th, 6:30 pm light reception, 7pm Teaching & Taizé Service

All are welcome to this special event hosted by All Souls’ Episcopal Church, Point Loma (1475 Catalina Blvd, San Diego)
